

Christmas: "Celebration"

Giving the gift of Joy to the World!

Rev. Dr. Mona Davies grew up poor on the south side of Chicago in the 1950's.

Crime was a constant. It was normal to see what she calls a "paddy wagon" in her neighborhood, there to haul off yet another criminal suspect.

At least one good thing came of her turbulent childhood. It inspired Davies to help kids who have incarcerated family members.

First in Seattle, then Los Angeles and now in southwest Riverside County, Davies and her husband Bob have been doing their part for 31 years for these kids.

This December 13th Community Outreach Ministry will be hosting the 20th Angel Tree Christmas party locally. The event includes the delivering of presents, catered food, presentations from law enforcement officials and entertainment — all in a festive setting.

The Davies' are advocates and a voice for the voiceless children left behind by their incarcerated parents. The ministry is helping to break the cycle of incarceration in children of incarcerated parents through year round outreach, camping and mentoring programs.

Meet Mentor Alice of Murrieta

Volunteering with Community Outreach Ministry has taught me so much about our community!

I am an artist that expresses my passion painting, it is a beauty of therapy.

I love to mentor children to paint as it brings them much joy and relaxation within one's self.

Last year I donated my art to the Art Fundraiser benefiting gifts for children at the Angel Tree Christmas party.
